

Tests for Higher Standards in History/Social Science Curriculum Framework - Simulation Test for Civics and Economics

(CE.5c)

28. When a news organization gives their perspective on a political issue or party, they are representing a (an):

- F independent evaluation
- G a biased perspective
- H response to another news station report
- J an evening news broadcast

(CE.5c)

29. Separating fact from opinion is a:

- A method to evaluate advertisements accurately.
- B role of the mass media.
- C citizen's civic duty.
- D method used in scientific evaluations.

(CE.5d)

30. PACs serve which of the following functions?

- F run political campaigns
- G donate large sums of money to their preferred candidate
- H run positive television ads for their adversary
- J appoint national committee chairs

(CE.5e)

31. In order to cast your vote on Election Day in Virginia, you must register at least:

- A 29 days prior to the election
- B 92 days prior to the election
- C one day prior to the election
- D 60 days prior to the election

(CE.5f)

32. Why does Ohio have more electors in the electoral college process than Virginia?

- F the national party determined that Ohio is a more important state
- G Ohio has more Congressional representation than Virginia
- H Virginia has more people living within her borders
- J Ohio has more lobbying influence among politicians

Economic Principles and Systems

(CE.9a)

33. The price of a product is the amount of money exchanged for the good. What determines the price of these goods?

- A the manufacturer of the product
- B the store owner
- C the distributor of the product
- D the supply and demand for the item